

Eduardo Tarango

Reno, NV | 702-743-1375 | eddietarangonv@gmail.com

Objective

Motivated Mathematics major seeking opportunities in finance or financial operations where strong analytical skills, leadership experience, and data-driven decision-making can support business performance and organizational growth.

Education

University of Nevada, Reno — B.S. in Mathematics

Expected Graduation: May 2027

Relevant Coursework: Calculus I–III, Linear Algebra, Probability & Statistics, Discrete Mathematics

Skills

- Analytical reasoning and quantitative problem-solving
- Data interpretation and decision-making under pressure
- Leadership and team coordination
- Clear communication in fast-paced environments

Leadership & Professional Experience

Intramural Sports Field Supervisor | Reno, NV

August 2025 – Present

- Supervise nightly sports operations, ensuring rule compliance and risk mitigation.
- Analyze game flow and resolve conflicts efficiently, demonstrating strong judgment and accountability.
- Prepare nightly reports that summarize performance, incidents, and operational needs.

Intramural Sports Official | Reno, NV

August 2024 – May 2025

- Managed fast-paced environments requiring sharp decision-making and impartial judgment.
- Communicated clearly with teams and staff, demonstrating professionalism and composure.

Green Valley High School Baseball | Henderson, NV

August 2019 – May 2023

- Mentored younger teammates, developing leadership and team-building strengths.
- Consistently prepared and executed game strategies, contributing to a Division Championship.

Awards & Scholarships

Millennium Scholarship (2023–Present)

2nd Team All-Conference (2023)

Gold Glove Award (2022)

Extracurricular & Volunteering

Intramural Sports Participant (2023–Present)

Aggie Roberts Elementary School Volunteer (Summer 2022)