

Eduardo Tarango

Reno, NV | 702-743-1375 | eddietarangonv@gmail.com

Professional Summary

Detail-oriented Mathematics student with strong analytical capabilities, leadership experience, and a record of high performance in structured, high-pressure roles. Seeking internships in finance, accounting, banking, or investment operations.

Education

University of Nevada, Reno — B.S. in Mathematics

Expected Graduation: May 2027

Technical & Analytical Skills

- Quantitative modeling and problem-solving
- Risk assessment and situational decision-making
- Data accuracy, record tracking, and reporting
- Team leadership and operational oversight

Experience

Intramural Sports Field Supervisor | Reno, NV

August 2025 – Present

- Oversaw operations and enforced policies, demonstrating attention to detail and reliability.
- Authored nightly logs summarizing activities, incidents, and compliance — reflecting strong reporting skills valuable in finance.
- Led teams of officials, reinforcing management and coordination abilities.

Intramural Sports Official | Reno, NV

August 2024 – May 2025

- Applied judgment-based decision-making and rule interpretation, similar to compliance-oriented finance roles.
- Maintained consistency and fairness, strengthening analytical thinking.

Leadership Experience

Green Valley High School Baseball

- Demonstrated discipline, resilience, and leadership as a varsity athlete.
- Contributed to strategic planning and execution during games.

Awards & Academic Honors

Millennium Scholarship (2023–Present)

Gold Glove Award (2022)

2nd Team All-Conference (2023)

Volunteer Experience

Aggie Roberts Elementary School (2022)

- Assisted instruction and maintained organized environments.

Activities

Intramural Sports Participant (Basketball, Flag Football) — 2023–Present